

1ST ANNUAL RE-ENTRY WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT TRAINING

WALDEN HOUSE, INC.

As part of a city- and county-wide effort to enhance current recidivism reduction strategies, Walden House offers a comprehensive one-day workforce development training event. The event will provide training to assist local stakeholders, community based providers, and criminal justice professionals who work with offenders during their community re-integration efforts.

Tuesday Nov. 4, 2008

9am-3pm

St. Mary's Cathedral

111 Gough St
San Francisco, CA 94102

A light lunch will be provided.

The Walden Institute of Training will provide the training event at no cost to participants. Those who wish to obtain six (6) CEUs must register by October 27, 2008 at <http://www.whregister.org>

The Walden House Re-Entry Workforce Development Training features:

1. Keynote Speaker Roderick Q. Hickman, former California State Secretary of Corrections
2. Panel Discussion with ex-offenders from San Francisco area providers
3. Training sessions:
 - a. Motivational Interviewing with offenders in Re-Entry
 - b. Gang Intervention and Violence Reduction Strategies for Re-Entry
 - c. Best Practices and Clinical Strategies to Address Co-Occurring Disorders in Forensic Settings
 - d. Impact of Incarceration on Re-Entry/ Post Prison Shock Syndrome

Sponsored by:

WALDEN HOUSE inc

Giving Hope - Changing Lives

For more information you can visit www.waldenhouse.org